

XM satellite radio is one of the best products I've ever bought. To limits its capabilities of helping out the public with weather and traffic info is absurd and un-American.